PLANTLAND VICTOR AGAIN.

TAKES THE CYPRESS HANDICAP AT CITY PARK IN EASY FASHION.

Marbles Finishes First but Is Disqualified-Approbation Again Defeats Flavigny-Wes Wins.

New Orleans, La., December 7 .- The Cypress Handicap, worth $1,850 net to the winner, was won by W. H. Fizer & Co.'s Plantland in commanding style after leading for the entire mile and a furlong trip. Zipango, the extreme outsider, landed place by a good margin before Faust. Plantland ran to his best form and showed a superior performance, but was aided considerably by the slippery going. A light rain shortly before noon track to become muddy. Of the orig inal carded starters Lotus Eater, Okenite, Temaceo Old Honesty and the much discussed Right Royal declined the issue. Besterling, with 100 pounds up, added, and that his stable connections thought he had an excellent chance was evidenced by the pound overweight he picked up with Aubuchon. Plantland ran into a long lead at once, maintained a fast pace all the way and won with plenty in reserve. -Zipango was at all times his closest con-tender and Faust, after going a half, dropped into place and remained there to the end. The showing of Yankee Girl was an improvement and she was close up at the finish. The going militated greatly against Alma Dufour and she tired perceptibly after early prominence. After the finish Lord Lovat ran away four miles at top speed before Detaby could get him under control.

The first disqualification of the meeting came with the running of the third race won by Marbles. May filly was an overwhelming choice and should have won off by herself but for the fouling tactics of jockey Notter. He was winning easily when McDaniel, on Lajeunesse, challenged, but with slight prospects of downing the leader. Notter, however, pulled over and pinched off Lajeunesse. The fouling was palpable and the judges promptly set her back and gave the race to Lajeunesse, fanta second and Bellwether third. was greeted with applause

Twelve, the largest field of the afternoon, started in the steeplechase and furnished a good spectacle by running closely grouped until the eighth jump was reached, where Peter Becker, then in the lead, made a bad landing and unseated jockey Yourell. With him out of the way, Pete Vinegar and Magic fought it out and finished in the order named, Itacatiara taking third place.

After acting badly at the post for some time Ace High was sent away in a long lead, but his advantage was not enough to enable him to beat out Sally Preston in the fifth.

For the third successive time the Texas cam-paigner, Approbation, took the measure of Flavigny. This time he beat the Watkins filly off.

Wes, after drifting in the betting to an outland ish figure in the opening race, won out in the last few strides over Pride of Woodstock. The heavily backed Conville finished third. After the finish Wes was bid up by W. S. Hoy to $1,600 over an Later A. Hamel, his former entered price of $900. offered $2,000 for his return, but failed to secure him.

judges fined jockey Notter $50 and suspended him for three days for having committed the foul on Marbles. Out of deference to those who had en gaged Notter for Monday, his suspension will not begin until Tuesday.

A. L. Kirby, who has charge of the field books, is having considerable trouble with his eyes, and will have to undergo an operation. Jockey Kelly, who sustained injury by a fall on Mazle O'Neill in her last race, is progressing favorably. Steeplechase jockeys T. Rae, F. Hufham and C. Brown were arrivals today. T. E. Mannix bought the contract on apprentice rider McCahey, under contract to J. Fitzsimmons, and will have him do most of the lightweight riding for his stable.

James Duckworth, Cohn & Adams and G. Durant were additions to the bookmaking ranks. The last named two were in line today.

Jockey Yourell, who fell from Peter Becker, feigned to be hurt and was conveyed across the track to the jockeys' quarters on a stretcher. his arrival in the paddock he jumped out of the stretcher and gave his carriers the laugh.

Starter Cassidy is said to have left Washington today, and is expected to arrive Monday.

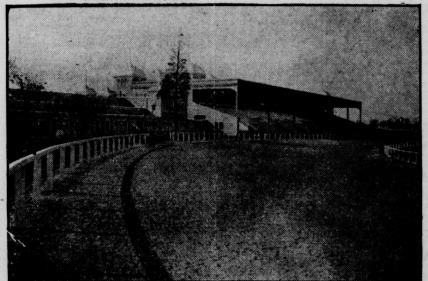

Many changes are in contemplation for City

Park during the period of two weeks that racing will be held at the Fair Grounds.

NEW GRANDSTAND AT CRESCENT CITY TRACK.

The illustration above is a photographic likeness of the new grandstand and auxilliary buildings which now grace the old Fair Grounds race course at New Orleans and which will be opened to the public for the first time tomorrow. The work of dismantling and rebuilding has been in progress since the close of the racing season last spring and the Crescent City Jockey Club has expended nearly a quarter of a million dollars in making their plant one of the most modern in the country. The grandstand itself is a replica of the grandstand which stood at Union Park race track in St. Louis, inasmuch as the steel in that structure was It has a seating capacity of over 5,000 used. people and affords a good view of every part of the track to the occupant of any seat in the structure. The building adjoining on the left is taken up with offices for officials, track post office, hospital, dining rooms, telegraph office, bureau of grand stand is the betting ring, judges' stand and paddock, also a covered enclosure where patrons coming to the track in automobiles and carriages may view the races without leaving their equipages. The betting ring is an enclosure designed to accommodate 100 bookmakers and their patrons without discomfort and is lighted by electricity. The paddock is also enclosed and contains eighteen stalls. Next to the paddock are the private offices of the judges, stewards and racing secretary. The foreground in the illustration represents the first

SANTA ANITA PARK'S INITIAL DAY.

Fine Attendance and Exceirent Racing Features of the Occasion.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 7.-The much-heralded opening of the new Santa Anita track brought out a crowd of 8,000 racing enthusiasts today, despite a lowering sky and threatened rain. course and surroundings were declared on all sides to be the prettiest in the west and perhaps the most beautiful in America. While the course proper is in fair condition, many finishing touches will have to be put on other parts of the place before it is in good racing order. The new chutes have already caught on with the public and put one in mind of the eastern courses

The Pomona Handicap, the feature event, went to the added starter, Mark Antony II., from the stable of R. F. Carman. He easily shouldered his 118 pounds, making his opponents appear cheap. Carman had a field day, winning four of the six races. It is already conceded his string will cut a big swath in the racing here. Just after Mark Antony II.'s victory, Mr. Carman was presented with a large silver cup as a trophy of the Pomona Handican. The recent stringency in national money matters was felt in the ring, the fifteen bookies and three fielders doing a somewhat indifferent business, although it is expected the betting will improve next week.

The track promises to be one of the fastest in America. All it needs now is a little packing to put it in the best possible condition.

The officials are: judges, Hamilton and Cole; secretary, E. C. Smith; clerk of scales, P. P. Pomeroy; manager, Dr. J. S. Gardner, and manager of ring, Gene Elrod.

TALK FROM TRAINER MATT ALLEN. Much Pleased with Brady's Yearling Otogo Has Jockey Garner for Next Year.

Lexington, Ky., December 7 .- Matt Allen, the veteran trainer of the stable of James B. Brady, arrived here from Nashville last night with two promising yearlings, and lost one of them, the fullbrother to Peter Sterling, by Lord Esterling-Lucrece, before he could be taken from the car. The other is the chestnut colt by Ornus-Irksome, of which such good reports have been coming from Nashville since the middle of September, when he is said to have shown an eighth in 11 seconds a later a quarter in better than 23 seconds. This colt to be sent on to New York next week along with several polo ponies belonging to Foxhall Keene. which have been in training at Mr. Keene's place adjoining Castleton Stud. They are to be used in England, and will be shipped from New York within a fortnight to their new quarters at Melton Mowbray.

"The brother to Peter Sterling," said Mr. Allen to Daily Racing Form, "I bought from Sam Parmer and Sandy Brown for my son. I did not make up my mind to take him until after I had purchased the other colt from J. W. Russwurm, the secretary at Cumberland Park. He was a nice looking light chestnut, with an attractive way of going-one of those fellows that turns his head sideways and snorts as he canters along—so I figured that I as ready to load the other colt I gave my check horse."

for $2,000 and put him on the car. He was all right when we left Nashville, but before we got to Louisville he was a sick horse. As soon as I got here I sent for a veterinary, and he said the trouble was spinal meningitis. He died in the yards before we could get him out of the car.

"The other colt I bought for Mr. Brady and my self and paid $2,500 for him. He is one of the most stylish horses under saddle that I ever and in many respects he resembles Oiseau. I am satisfied that I have a bargain in him. Russwurm priced him to me some three weeks ago and after I got to Nashville, I heard that he had been offered considerably more for him than I paid. Lee Christy told me that there are five colts in the lot that he is training for Fred Cook at Cumberland Park that could not be bought for $10,000 each and after I bought this Ornus colt, he said to me: 'Mr. Allen, you certainly have got the best colt on this track. If he was mine I would not trade him for anyone I am handling. If there is a colt here that can run a quarter through this stretch in 22, it's the Ornus colt.' Johnny Walters, who trains the Hendrie horses, told me practically the same thing.

"I would have been down this way sooner, but I wanted to close a deal with John A. Drake for services of jockey Garner next year, and I had to wait over in New York a week longer than I expected. Yes, we have Garner for next year. We pay $5,000 and give the boy his winning and losing mounts. Garner will not ride this winter. He will report to me about February 1 and will work in the stable until the Benning meeting opens expect to send him down there to get in condition for the opening at Aqueduct. Drake has a con tract on him until he is of age. He is eighteen now and weighs only ninety-five pounds. wanted to ride this winter, but Drake has been ounishing him and put his foot flatly down upor the proposition. Then Willie McKinney came along a story about a man named Lawrence wanting him for the winter at Los Angeles, but Drake said to him: 'No McKinneys or Lawrences get their hands on you. You have been your own boss for a while and a fine mess you are about to make of it. I've mapped out a program for you. going to take a gun and go out there in Iowa and do a little hunting until Mr. Allen gets ready for you, and then you are coming back east and ride only what he tells you to ride until the end of next year. Then the following year I may want Drake, you know, is thinking you again myself.' of getting together another stable for 1909. Garner is a good rider and he will have a long life in the saddle if he takes care of himself. He is not the sort that is apt to grow big rapidly.

"He has a little brother that knows how to do a lot of things on a horse's back, but I am afraid he will be a long time getting big enough to ride New fault, I know, but it is a fact. He only weighs sixty pounds and it looks like he won't pick up much more weight or get any longer in legs very soon.

"The jockey problem out east has come to be a serious one. If a man hasn't got a good boy and has got good horses, be is just as much up against it as if he had bad horses. It got so last season that when you engaged a good boy you were never certain, even on the day of the race, whether you had him or not. They would make so many conditional engagements ahead that it was hard to figure out just where you stood until you were told that might as well ship two as one, and just before I the boy could not ride or you saw him on the

FAST SON OF CESARION REGAINS HIS SPEED AND WINS CANTERING.

Gene Russell Defeats Manchester Luckily-Old Corrigan Takes a Race-Great Crowd in Attendance.

Oakland, Cal., December 7 .- Sewell's cantering victory in the rich Crocker Stakes at one mile, the phenomenal time of 1:39% over a track that was slippery and fetlock deep in mud and the subsequent sensational bidding up of the winner from $1,200 to $4,200 by J. S. Hawkins, the owner of Wing Ting, the runner-up, were the outstanding features of a high-class half holiday's racing at Oakland this afternoon.

In view of the light weight Sewell carried-100 pounds-and his generally acknowledged superiority as a mud runner, the closing price of 11 to 5 quoted about him by the layers was extraordinarily liberal. The impression prevails that these ring conditions were due to the report that Sewell's owner bet his commission away from the track.

After that three heavily backed favorites in Gene Russell, Sewell and Corrigan made good in succession. closing race proved easy for the long overdue Henshall cast-off, Dollie Dollars. In other words, favorites and fourth choices in the betting shared equally in the day's racing prizes.

Walter Miller and Eddie Dugan monopolized the riding honors with two wins each. Palms and Kirschbaum took one each. The combined bad showing of Pajaroita and her jockey, Powers, in the third race, is being investigated by the stew-

Strong inducements are being held out to R. F. Carman to leave at least a portion of his horses at Oakland and race them on the local track. T. Rice was cautioned by the stewards after his faulty ride on Silver Stocking.

A new rule prohibiting the sending of information of the results of races from the track until the expiration of ten minutes after the official posting of each race was put into force today.

Clear skies drew out another record Saturday crowd to Oakland. Last season's high-water mark of forty bookmakers to draw for positions in the betting ring was almost tied at today's cut in, thirty-nine going on, despite the counter attraction of Santa Anita's opening day.

WILSON YEARLINGS NAMED.

R. T. Wilson, Jr., has named several of his yearlings by Mexican and has also nominated them in some of the two and three-year-old stakes to be run in 1908 and 1909. These are the first produce of the Mirthful stallion, which Mr. Wilse chased several years ago from John E. Madden. he would not have named them for any of the stakes of 1909 unless he thought they would make good performers. If they race to expectations next spring Mr. Wilson will probably breed all of his mares to Mexican in the future. The following is a list of those already named, together with some by other sires:

Eschau, ch. c, by Ornament-Gurgle. Guatamotzin, ch. c, by Mexican—Money Box. Hanonia, ch. f, by Mexican—Hanonana. Indian Summer,ch. f, by Mexican—Undecided. Manviette, b. f, by Mexican—L'Alouette. Wamboro, ch. c, by Ornament-Favorite Yardstick, br. c, by Woolsthorpe-Grenadine.

WOULD RATE HORSES AS CRIMINALS.

Memphis, Tenn., December 7 .- Circuit Judge Maone of this city today declared himself in favor enacting a law punishing with death a horse or any other domestic animal which had killed or maimed a human being. Judge Malone arrived at this conclusion after reading a dispatch relating the death of jockey Mosier by the horse Kercheval at Nashville last week. He believes that an animal should suffer the penalty of the law just as an individual would if guilty of a felonious assault with murderous intent and that such an animal is too dangerous to live.

SUFFRAGE BADLY INJURED.

New York, December 7 .- Suffrage, the four-yearold chestnut filly, by Voter—Queenston, from the stable of James R. Keene, was to have been shipped to Castleton Stud at Lexington, Ky:, in the horse car which John Miller runs weekly between York and Kentucky points. In loading, Suffrage stepped off the loading platform and was so badly injured in the stifle that trainer Rowe took her back to Sheepshead Bay, where she is now under treatment by veterinary Sheppard. It will be some time before she fully recovers.

OWNER OF RAMAPO AND GIROFLE.

Mr. Donner's Turf Prominence-Boys and Charley Gray Riding in Chili.

New York, December 6.—They were discussing at the rooms of the Jockey Club today the death of H. O. Havermeyer, known as the "Sugar King," who left many millions to three children. He was only sixty years old, young in one sense, and there were statements made today in the Jockey Club that if Mr. Havemeyer had chosen years ago to take up with the turf, as did a former associate. he might still be alive and perhaps live years longer. Mr. Havemeyer bred roadsters, but never had to do with thoroughbreds, more's the pity. The former ssociate alluded to was J. Otto Donner, the owner f the famous Girofle, which was sent to England in 1883 and there cut an inglorious figure. She had been leased by "Plunger" Walton, who expected to follow up with this daughter of Leamington some of his great ring successes of 1881, when he won fortunes on Iroquois in the Derby and St. Leger, and still larger sums on Foxhall in the Cesarewitch and Cambridgeshire. Girofle was, however, a mare of peculiar temperament, and she never ran her American form, which was of the highest class. No doubt she missed in England the patient han dling of quiet old Eph Snedeker, who for many years trained for Mr. Donner and the confederacy which owned Kingston before he was sold for $12,500 to the Dwyer Brothers, who desired to protect Hanover and Tremont from dangerous competitors the follow ing year-1887. Billy Donohue, who is still in England, where he was last year training for Mrs. Langtry (or Mr. Jersey, as the turf world knows her), rode Girofle in England as he had done in this country, and the then arrogant English jockeys and horsemen ridiculed the Yankee's seat in the saddle, he thus antedating by some years "Willie" Simms and Simms and the Reiffs, Sloan and all the galaxy of good jockeys who, after a year or two of experience on the British turf, have gradually left England, either to return to America or to ride in other countries

The late Mr. Donner was an idealist. great student of pedigrees and of the action of race When the California photographer, Muy bridge, first showed the real action of a race horse by his system of picture taking, Mr. Donner had a set of the photos mounted on a circular, moving platform and set them in motion, thus getting an exact idea of the different phases of action through which horses go. Mr. Donner bred Ramapo, that grand looking chestnut by Pontiac (himself a jet black horse), and after David Gideon leased Rama horse slow to develop, he became about the best of his age in the year 1894, having won the Suburban from Banquet, Sport, and others that season, the race having a sequel in a match bethe first and second, and also engendering a quarrel between the respective factions which it took years of diplomacy on the part of P. H. Me Carren and others to wipe out. The senator realized then that the turf could not stagger under such a quarrel as the row between the Messrs. Gideon and Dwyer bade fair to be, and so in good time the ome news was made public that the legal mat ters had been settled. The principals to that quarrel have settled down to be as good friends as possible, and there is no unpleasant post mortem: of the rivalry between Ramapo and Banquet.

these horses afterward went to England. The latter, a gelding, could not, of course, be of any use to a breeder, and the story has often been told that he became a cab horse, but those in a position to know have always denied this.

Ramapo, however, in due time went to the stud and became the sire of some good two-year-olds. is young yet, and there is ample time for him to develop into a success abroad. That he had all the individual characteristics necessary is recalled by the race-goer of that period.

I saw today at the office of the Jockey Club. Harry Michaels, the American jockey, who has just returned for a six months' visit to his parents at Coney Island. Harry Michaels, his brother and Charles Gray, the latter once so well known on the western turf, are the three leading jockeys in Chill, South America. The three divide between them nearly the entire program of a race day. Michaels tells me that he is paid $700 a month as a retaining fee, with $20 for mounts. Unluckily, the Chili money is worth only twenty cents on the dollar of American money and hence his earnings are not so large as appears on the surface. But Michaels has saved his money and is evidently, like others of his race, loyal to his parents and so desirous were his father and mother of seeing both their sons, now absent several years from home, that they had negotiated for and purchased two round trip tickets to Santiago, Chili, at a cost of $900, when the elder son reached home. It is a matter which puzzles Americans why some jockeys do so well abroad and so poorly at home. Perhaps a little incident which recently happened at one English race course may throw some light on this. That most respected nobleman, Lord Derby, head of the house of Stanley, which has carried on racing there for more than a hundred years, sent for "Danny" Maher after he had won a for him and complimented the Connecticut youth upon his fine horsemanship. This is the kind of appreciation which binds a person to his employer stronger than steel fetters, and it is not surprising to know that Maher is so eager to ride a Derby winner for Lord Derby, whose ancestors gave his name to the Epsom fixture, that he would go to great lengths to achieve his object. It must be a source of great satisfaction to Maher to have so eminent a person, a close associate of the King of England, pay him so high a compliment. Maher in Switzerland, noted for its dangerous tobogganing. races being run over a course upon which more than one fatality has taken place. Maher will accompany J. H. (Skeets) Martin to Davos. Winner—Br. g, by Sain—Winyah (trained by D. S. Fountain).

Went to post at 1:42. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving: second and third the same. Senator Warner drew out early and, showing much speed, won all the way, but may have been lucky. Silver Stocking, from a flatfooted inside start, worked through a rough trip and, closing a big gap into a fast going second, probably was best. St. Francis beat the barrier, but quickly relinquished the lead and, after nearest pursuit of the pacemaker to the last furlong, quit finally. Salvage, from a good start, ran prominently to the stretch, then quit badly. Bertie S. ran forwardly throughout. Banposal, away slowly, ran a poor race and is not ready. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Overweights—Silver Stocking, 2 pounds.

SECOND RACE—1 1-2 Miles. (3389—2:324—6—103.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—Ch. g, by Russell—Genie (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 2:34. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Gene Russell, luckily and forwardly placed and reserved in behind the two leaders, came through on the inside in the stretch and made good finally, but probably was lucky today. Manchester forced the pace, but was carried to the extreme outside on the last turn and in the stretch and succumbed in the last couple of strides. Albion H. set the pace to the stretch, but went hopelessly wide and tired at the end. Joe Nealon, outpaced in the early running, closed up steadily in the last half. Onatassa also finished with and is a fine looker that broke and ran green.

Overweights—Albion H., 1 pound.

Winner—B. c, by Cesarion—Ora Bailey (trained by W. H. Spence).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won cantering; second driving; third the same. Sewell, from a good inside start, spreadeagled his opponents under a pull and was immeasureably best, particularly in the muddy going. Wing Ting, forwardly placed from the start, finished fast and gamely. Rubrie, also in strenuous and prominent pursuit of the flying pacemaker, held on very gamely in the closing drive. Sidney F., away badly, closed a big gap. Molesey, nearly left, made up fifteen lengths in the last half and made a cracking effort. Blondy ran a good race under a bad rider. Arklirta showed bard retained.

Corrigan indulged the early pacemaker with the lead for half the journey, then went to the front and won as his ridder pleased. Miss May Boydish steadily improved her position on her own courage into a fast going second. Melar showed superior early speed for seven furlongs and tired in the stretch. King of Mist, away badly, made up ground steadily. Mendon showed early speed, but falled to stay. Harmakls ran a remarkably bad race and lacked respectable speed at any stage. St. George Jr. quit, as usual. The winner was entered for $400: no bid.

Dollie Dollars, after close pursuit of the leaders from the start, drew out with a rush when straightened for home, winning off finally. Northwest, sluffled to the rear on the first turn, closed a big gap in the last half into a fast going second. San Alviso set the pace gamely for six furlongs and then finished tiring in the deep inside going. Ovelando showed brilliant early speed, but gave way in the last quarter. Jacomo, nearly left, closed an immense gap and finished with a cyclonic rush. Judge Nelson was prominent for the first half, but tired badly and unexpectedly. Janeta ran a poor race.

Overweights—San Alviso, 1 pound; Judge Nelson, 4.

Went to post at 2:59. Off at once to a good start. Won driving; second and third the same. Marbles, favored by the going and away fast, showed superior speed and raced Infanta into defeat in the first half, but swerved and interfered with Lajeunesse in the last sixteenthi for which she was disqualified after winning. Lajeunesse was prominent from the start and was going gamely at the time of the mishap, but would not have beaten the winner. Infanta ran in close pursuit for a half, but quit badly in the stretch. Bellwether ran fairly well only and will improve. Needmore was going well at the end.

Good Information

Our connection with a group of horsemen now racing at Oakland, Cal., is of the strongest kind, and it is from this source and not the efforts of any salaried employes that we obtain the information which enabled us to send out as our Friday's Occasional Wire, which we advertised as having since last Tuesday. Our correspondent at the track is an owner and trainer himself and is directly interested in our firm. Therefore, it is to his own interests to send the best and best only. His vast experience with horses and, in fact, everything pertaining to races, makes it possible for him to see things which any one less experienced would pass by as unimportant, while the "clocking" which he himself does, together with the litle confidences by personal friends when sifted down by his expert mind, become information of the rarest kind. The information which he gathers is information obtained by a horseman from other horsemen only, and also by the closest kind of watching and timing of work-outs. Therefore we say that our information is expert information in every sense of the word, and we court investigation into our every method of business.

Our correspondent each day wires us what in his estimation is the best bet of the day, and we will furnish a daily One-Horse Wire service for which we charge $10.00 weekly (six wires).

We will also, as the occasions arise, when
